This FREE program is offered to individuals with special needs who may benefit from an adapted recreation program. Parma Pride, directed by Greg Karaffa, offers a variety of sports-related activities that are fun and adapted to fit the needs of those individuals who want to learn and develop additional skills.

We strive to make this a successful and enjoyable experience for youth participants, preschool through adult. We hope to build motor skills, as well as a strong understanding of all the activities involved. A parent or family member is encouraged to participate alongside the athlete so skills can be used at home and in the community.
